1.00 NAME

- 1.01 The name of this Division is “Australian Flying Corps and Royal Australian Air Force Association, Queensland Division
- 1.02 The short title of the Division shall be “Royal Australian Air Force Association, Queensland Division and may be abbreviated to ‘RAAFA’ and in this Constitution called ‘Division’.
- 1.03 The Head Office of the Division shall be situated in such place within Queensland as the State Council may from time to time decide.

2.00 INTERPRETATIONS

- 2.01 It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects and purposes specified in each of the paragraphs of the Clause 3.00 shall (except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph) be construed in the most liberal way and shall be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of the first or any other paragraph of the said Clause 3.00 or the name of the Division.
- 2.02 Words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa and masculine pronouns shall include the feminine gender and vice versa.
- 2.03 The term ‘Financial Member’ includes Ordinary Members whose subscription is current within the meaning given by Clause 5.12.01 sub clauses b and c, Fully Subscribed Members as defined in Clause 5.01.09 and Life Members.
- 2.04 Subject to Clause 5.16 the decision of the Division’s Annual Assembly of Delegates on the construction and interpretation of any clause shall be conclusive and binding on all members.
- 2.05 This Constitution is subject in all respects to the Letters Patent issued to the Division on 17 October, 1946 and any clause which is inconsistent with those Letters Patent is to the extent of the inconsistency to be deemed null and void.

3.00 OBJECTS

The objects and purposes for which this Division is established are to:

- 3.01 promote and maintain the welfare and benefit of members, ex-members of Her Majesty’s Air Forces and their dependants and other persons approved under this Constitution to be members of this Association;
- 3.02 render unswerving loyalty to Australia, its system of Government and its Institutions and respect for the National Flag; and
- 3.03 honour and preserve the memory of comrades who have died.

4.00 POWERS

The powers of the Division are to:

- 4.01 establish and regulate the Branches throughout the Queensland Division in accordance with this constitution and associated By-laws.
- 4.02 establish and maintain Institutions for members and ex-members of Her Majesty's Air Forces and dependants of deceased members and ex-members of Her Majesty's Air Forces.
- 4.03 establish, maintain and conduct clubs or club rooms for the accommodation of members and their friends and to provide generally to members all the usual privileges, advantages, conveniences and accommodation of a club, and to acquire and hold licences to supply and keep intoxicating liquor for consumption by members and their friends.
- 4.04 acquire and take over all or any of the assets and liabilities of any association (corporate or unincorporated) having objects similar or in part similar to the objects of this Division.
- 4.05 purchase or otherwise acquire real and personal property and to lease, mortgage, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of any such property and to apply the same, both capital and income thereof, for or towards all or any of the objects and purposes of this Division.
- 4.06 acquire shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, mortgages, obligations or securities by original subscription (absolute or conditional), tender, exchange or otherwise.
- 4.07 accept moneys on deposit (subject, however, to the provisions hereinafter contained) and to issue deposit receipts bearing interest or not bearing interest and payable at call, or at a fixed future date or dates, or upon the happening of any event or events and subject to such terms and conditions as may be thought fit as decided by State Council
- 4.08 issue debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations and securities of all kinds and to frame, constitute and secure the same as may seem expedient, with full power to make the same transferable by delivery or by instrument of transfer or otherwise and either perpetual or terminable, and either redeemable or otherwise, and to charge or secure the same by trust deed or otherwise on the undertaking of this Division or upon any specific property and rights, present and future of this Division (including, uncalled capital or otherwise howsoever).
- 4.09 advance and lend the moneys of this Division with or without security or upon the security of any real or personal property as decided by State Council.
- 4.10 acquire by purchase, exchange, gift, lease, hire or otherwise, any real or personal property and rights of proceedings and any rights in relation to or arising therefrom.
- 4.11 sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any real. or personal property of this Division, including debts, rights of proceedings and other assets and property, for such consideration as may from time to time be deemed expedient, and to see grant options or rights to purchase over or otherwise dispose of the undertaking of this Division or any part thereof for such case or other consideration as this Division may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other Division or body having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Division, and to sell, exchange, partition, grant options or rights to purchase over, improve, manage, develop, lease, sub-lease, mortgage, licence, dispose of, realise and turn to account all or any part of the property of rights, real or personal, of this Division.

- 4.12 borrow from time to time such sums of money upon such terms and at any rate of interest as may be deemed expedient.
- 4.13 take and accept and acquire (by original loan, transfer or otherwise) mortgages, charges or other securities (whether ranking first or subsequent) over any land or over any personal property for any advance made or to be made by or on behalf of this Division, either alone or jointly with a person or persons, or for any purchase money, and to take possession or sell or foreclose or otherwise exercise the rights, powers and authorities of or under such mortgages, charges and securities or over any such mortgaged or charged premises.
- 4.14 undertake, take over, accept, carry out and fulfil all such contracts, obligations, liabilities and duties as this Division shall think fit, and whether the same are now existing or are hereafter to arise, and whether created by mortgage, bill of sale, specialty instrument in writing or oral contract or otherwise howsoever, and upon such terms and conditions and generally as this Division shall think fit.
- 4.15 acquire, construct, build, repair, maintain and alter buildings for the purpose of this Division.
- 4.16 invest and deal with the moneys of this Division not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be deemed expedient.
- 4.17 borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as this Division shall deem fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (perpetual or otherwise), bonds, mortgages, bills of sale or other securities charged upon all or any of the property (both present and future) of this Division, or without any such security, and to purchase, redeem or pay off any such securities.
- 4.18 make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.
- 4.19 employ and remunerate secretaries, accountants, brokers, experts and such other persons and officers and employees as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects herein contained.
- 4.20 place any moneys of this Division with any banking or other company or institution, to open accounts current with any bank and to pay moneys into and withdraw moneys from any such accounts, and to overdraw any such account or accounts.
- 4.21 empower the State Council to make By-Laws for the regulation and good management and government of this Division to assume responsibility for authorised public statements by its appointed officers, and to restrain any individual member of this Division who issues a public statement or who publicly participates in any political gathering or meeting in a personal capacity from acting as if he represents the views of members of this Division.

- 4.22 do all such acts, matters and things as may promote the welfare of the members of this Division.
- 4.23 do all such acts, matters and things as are or may be incidental to the foregoing powers or purposes of any of them.

And it is hereby Declared that the intention is that the power or purposes specified in each of the paragraphs of this clause shall (except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph) be construed in the most liberal way and shall be in no way, limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of the first or any other paragraph or the name of this Division.

5.00 MEMBERSHIP

5.01 Ordinary Members of the Division consist of the following:

- 5.01.01 All personnel who were not dishonourably discharged and who have served, or are serving, in Her Majesty's Air Forces, Auxiliary Air Forces, Royal Naval Air Service, Nursing and Medical Services or in any Branch of Her Majesty's Air Forces and all personnel of Her Majesty's Navies and Armies specifically involved in the maintenance and operation of Military Aircraft; or
- 5.01.02 Such members of the Allied Forces or Ancillary Services who may be approved from time to time by State Council; or
- 5.01.03 Serving and former members of the Air Training Corps, Air Force Cadets or Australian Air League as currently constituted in Australia who are over the age of eighteen (18) years; or
- 5.01.04 Persons who, not being less than eighteen (18) years of age, are spouses, parents, siblings, sons or daughters of persons listed in clause 5.01.01.
- 5.01.05 Persons who, not being less than eighteen (18) years of age, are spouses, parents, siblings, sons or daughters of members or deceased members of the RAAF Association.
- 5.01.06 Persons not otherwise eligible to become members but are members of Associations which have formed Branches of this Association; and
- 5.01.07 Members who are granted Fully Subscribed membership are Ordinary members and are accorded the rights and subjected to the obligations of Ordinary Membership without any further payment of annual subscriptions. However, they are required to pay any levies as decided by State Council.
- 5.01.08 Provided that a Division may by Special Resolution (which may be rescinded or varied from time to time by Special Resolution of its Annual Assembly of Delegates or Annual General Meeting as the case may be), resolve not to admit as members in that Division persons in any of the categories referred to in sub-clauses 5.01.05 to 5.01.07 inclusive above and provided also that not less than sixty percent (60%) of the Division Council or Committee shall be members eligible under sub-clauses 5.01.01 to 5.01.03 inclusive above and provided further that the positions of President of the Division and Branch President shall be filled by members who are eligible under sub-clauses 5.01.01 or 5.01.02, while such are available.

5.02 Honorary Membership

Any person who, in the opinion of State Council, is entitled to such distinction, may be admitted as an Honorary Member for such time as the State Council may determine. Honorary Membership should not be bestowed on persons eligible to be full members. Any Honorary Member shall have the status and rights and obligations of a member, save and except that he shall not be required to pay an annual subscription, and shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of this Association or to hold office.

5.03 Life Membership

5.03.01 A member deserving of special recognition and who has had financial membership for a period of fifteen (15) years or more, and has rendered at least ten (10) years' honorary service of an outstanding nature to this Division may by the National Council be granted the distinction of Life Membership.

5.03.02 In the case of a member becoming a Life Member, he shall have the rights and privileges and be subject to the obligations of Ordinary Membership, save and except for the provisions for Annual Subscription but must contribute to any levies decreed by State Council.

5.03.03 Life Membership may be granted by the National Council:

- a. on its own initiative; or
- b. on the written recommendation of National Executive; or
- c. on the written recommendation of the Awards Committee.

5.03.04 Whenever it is proposed that Life Membership be conferred on a Member, a written recommendation setting out the history of the person proposed and his/her service to the Association, shall be sent to the State Secretary for forwarding to the Awards Committee.

5.04 Associate Membership

5.04.01 Any Branch may admit a financial member of another Branch as an Associate member on payment of an additional subscription as may be determined by the Branch; and

5.04.02 Associate members of a Branch cannot hold Office in that Branch nor are they entitled to vote on any matter whatsoever. Associate members may speak at meetings with the concurrence of the meeting.

5.05 Branch Social Membership

A Branch may admit to Social membership a person not otherwise eligible for categories of membership covered by sub clauses 5.01.01 to 5.01.03 inclusive. Such persons are not regarded as members of the RAAF Association, have no voting rights, and are not able to hold Office.

5.06 Rights. Privileges and Obligations

5.06.01 In addition to his rights, privileges and obligations as a member of this Association, every financial member shall have the rights and privileges and be subject to the obligations of a member of the Division in which his membership is for the time being included.

5.06.02 A financial member shall have membership rights and privileges in one Division only.

5.06.03 A financial member shall have membership rights and privileges in one Branch only.

5.07 Admission

5.07.01 Any person desiring to become a member of this Association, who is eligible for membership, shall be proposed and seconded by members of this Association on such form of application as the State Council may prescribe. The application shall be submitted to the Branch Committee or State Council as the case may be. The Branch Committee has the power to accept; or reject an application without giving any reasons. The acceptance of an application for membership by a Branch, shall be subject to details being forwarded to State Secretary and the annual membership fee forwarded to State Treasurer.

5.08 Enrolment

5.08.01 Members shall be enrolled normally in the Division within whose jurisdiction they reside.

5.08.02 Any member for special reasons may seek enrolment in a Division other than that in which he resides. Such a member may be enrolled by the Division to which he applies for inclusion.

5.09 Transfer

5.09.01 A member who changes his place of residence from one State to another may apply for transfer and such transfer shall be arranged by the gaining Division.

5.09.02 A member of another Division, who has been accorded Fully Subscribed Membership status for that Division may be accepted for transfer to ordinary membership of this Division without any further payment of annual subscriptions provided that such member meets the eligibility requirements of this Division. Such members will nevertheless be required to pay any levy or Annual Special Divisional Subscription imposed from time to time on all members.

5.10 General Register of Members

There shall be a register (called the General Register) of all members, to be kept by the State secretary, which shall contain such particulars as the State Council shall from time to time prescribe.

5.11 Exclusions

A State Council may in its absolute discretion refuse to admit as a Member of this Association anyone whom it considers to be a member of or associated with any body or organisation, whose objects or activities are inconsistent with loyalty to Australia or subversive to the social, political or governmental institutions of the Commonwealth of Australia or anyone who has expressed views in sympathy with such objects or activities.

5.12 Membership Fees

5.12.01 Annual Subscriptions

- a. Each member, other than Life Members, Honorary Members or Fully Subscribed Members as defined in Clause 5.01.08 shall pay a minimum annual subscription of such amount prescribed from time to time by the State Council. Provided however that any person admitted to membership after 30th June in any year may pay half the annual subscription for that year;
- b. each annual subscription shall become payable in advance by each member on the 1st January in each year. A member whose subscription remains unpaid after that date is unfinancial and is not entitled to speak or vote at any meeting.
- c. a member whose subscription is unpaid by the 30th April shall cease to hold membership in the Division.

5.12.02 State Council Levy

The Assembly of Delegates may with discretion, direct that an Annual Special Divisional Subscription as set by the Annual Assembly of Delegates be paid by each member in addition to the annual subscription provided for in Clause 5.12.01. Any such Special Divisional Subscription shall be remitted in full to the Division.

5.12.03 Social Membership Fee

The amount charged to a Social member as fees shall be determined and retained by individual Branches.

5.13 Termination of Membership

5.13.01 Resignation

A member may resign his or her membership by sending his resignation in writing to the State Secretary or Branch in which enrolled, and upon such resignation being accepted at the discretion of the State Council or Branch as the case may be, shall cease to be a member, and shall return the badge to the State Secretary or Branch Secretary.

5.13.02 Suspension and Expulsion

- a. Any member who has infringed the Division Constitution, or who is acting or who has acted in a manner which is considered by the State Council to be contrary to the interests of the Division, may, either on the initiative of the State Council or, on consideration of a report made thereto by any two or more members of this Division, be expelled from membership of this Division, or be suspended for such a period as the State Council may think fit; and

- b. in particular, any member may be expelled whom the State Council considers to be a member of, or associated with any body or organisation any of whose objects are disloyal to Australia or subversive to the social, political or governmental institutions of the Commonwealth of Australia.

5.13.03 Notice of Charge against a Member

The State Council alone shall have the power to deal with any charge against a member involving the penalty of suspension or expulsion, at a Special Meeting of the State Council convened for the purpose by not less than thirty (30) days' notice, and provided that such a member has been given not less than thirty (30) days' notice in writing, posted by certified mail to him at his address appearing in the Register of this Division, specifying the nature of the charge and the time and place of such State Council meeting and notifying that he may attend such meeting for the purpose of being heard in his defence of such charge, and provided further that suspension or expulsion shall be effected only if passed by a Special Resolution of the State Council. A member suspended or expelled from this Association by the State Council may, within fourteen (14) days after the date of his suspension or expulsion, appeal against the decision of the State Council.

- 5.13.04 A Branch may suspend a member against whom a charge has been preferred, for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, when hearing by the State Council is pending.

- 5.13.05 Membership of any Honorary Member may be forfeited by the State Council for any cause which the State Council may think fit, and without giving any reason.

- 5.13.06 No person or member whose membership has been suspended or forfeited shall be entitled to commence or prosecute any action or legal proceeding for defamation against any member of this Division who made a complaint, or who gave evidence thereon (verbally or in writing), or who exercised any power or duty as an Executive Officer, or as a Member of the State Council or as a Member of any Committee, it being a condition of Membership of the Division that all complaints, notices, letters, evidence and other matters arising under or incidental to any complaint, and the hearing and determination there of and all proceedings and utterances at any National Council, State Council Meeting, Executive Meeting, Branch Committee Meetings, and General and Special Meetings in connection therewith, shall be privileged and protected accordingly, and should any action or legal proceedings be taken as aforesaid, this Rule may be pleaded as an absolute bar thereto.

5.14 Reinstatement

No person shall be reinstated on any register until he has paid all arrears of subscriptions which would have become due had he remained a member; provided however, that the State Council may reduce the amount payable if, in its discretion, it thinks fit.

5.15 Disputes between members

Disputes between members (in their capacity as members) of this Association, and disputes between members and this Association are to be referred to a Special

General Meeting of the State Council and the decision of the State Council shall be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.

5.16 Interpretation of Membership Clauses

Interpretation of the Membership Clauses on which any dispute arises shall be referred to the State Council for decision, and such decision shall be final and binding.

5.17 Miscellaneous Membership Rules

5.17.01 An Association badge shall be issued to every new ordinary member. The cost of the badge shall be chargeable as determined from time to time by State Council. This badge must be returned to the Branch or State Secretary upon cessation of membership.

5.17.02 Any Member losing their badge may purchase a new badge from the Branch Secretary.

5.18 Affiliation of Organisations

Organisations having objects compatible with, or ancillary to, the objects of this Association may be accorded affiliation, on such terms as may be determined by State Council.

6.00 MANAGEMENT-DIVISION

6.01 The Division

6.01.01 The Division shall be organised in the following manner:
a State Council; and Branches or other sub-bodies.

6.01.02 The management and control of the Division shall be vested in the State Council from one Assembly of Delegates to the next.

6.02 Structure of State Council

The State Council shall consist of the:
State Executive; and two (2) representatives elected by each Branch one of whom shall be the Branch President.

6.03 Powers of State Council

6.03.0 1 The State Council shall have and exercise all such powers, duties and discretions necessary to carry out the objects of the Division set out in this Constitution and to ensure the good governance of the Division and its Branches.

6.03.02 The State Council shall at all times have the power to call on any Branch or official of any Branch of the Division to produce to any person authorised in writing by the State Council all records, books, vouchers, receipts, receipt books, etc. in his possession, and State Council may direct that person or some other person nominated by it to carry out any investigation considered necessary. The State Council shall have full power to take any action considered necessary as a result of the finding of any such investigation and may remove from office any officer, after calling upon him to show cause why he should not be so removed.

- 6.03.03 The State Council may from time to time make, amend or repeal By-Laws, not inconsistent with this Constitution, for the internal management of the Division and any By-law may be set aside by the State Council.

6.04 The Executive

The Executive of the Division shall consist of the following:

the President of the Division;

the Deputy State President;

Area Vice Presidents:

Northern;

Central;

Sunshine Coast

Moreton

South Eastern;

South Western;

the State Secretary; and the State Treasurer.

6.05 Powers and Duties of the State Executive

- 6.05.01 It shall be the duty of the State Executive to carry into effect the directions of the State Council and uphold this Constitution, but no such direction shall invalidate any prior action of the State Executive which was in the authority of the Executive.

- 6.05.02 The State Executive may determine to convene a Special General Meeting of the members of a Branch where the Executive is satisfied that such a meeting is necessary in the interests of the Branch and where the Branch President has refused or omitted to convene such a meeting after a request by the State Executive. Such Special General Meeting shall have the power of an Annual General Meeting of the Branch.

- 6.05.03 The State Executive shall exercise such further powers and superintend such conduct and business affairs of this State as may be delegated to it by the State Council.

- 6.05.04 A meeting of the Executive may be conducted by members of the Executive meeting in person, by electronic means or by telephone contact

6.06 Election and Appointment of Officers

- 6.06.01 At the Annual Assembly of Delegates, all the members of the State Executive for the time being shall retire from office, but shall be eligible upon nomination for re-election.

- 6.06.02 The Annual Assembly of Delegates of the Division shall elect the:
President of the Division;

6.10 The Annual Assembly of Delegates

- 6.10.01 The Queensland Division shall hold an Annual Assembly of Delegates in April or May of each year at such place as determined by the Annual Assembly of Delegates the previous year.
- 6.10.02 The Assembly of Delegates shall consist of the State Executive and Delegates from each Branch elected by that Branch. It would be deemed to be a Conflict of Interest if a member of the State Executive were to be a Branch Delegate. The State Executive shall have no deliberative voting powers however in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall exercise a casting vote.
- 6.10.03 Each Branch shall have an entitlement of two (2) Delegates for the first forty (40) financial members or part thereof and one (1) Delegate for each additional forty (40) financial members or part thereof as at 31st December of the preceding year, with a maximum of five (5) delegates from any one Branch. Each delegate to have one vote. One delegate from each branch may in the absence of any other delegate from his branch exercise the votes which these delegates were entitled to exercise on behalf of their branch.
- 6.10.04 All financial members of the Division shall be entitled to attend the Annual Assembly of Delegates, but unless elected as Branch Delegates shall not be entitled to vote.
- 6.10.05 If at the Annual Assembly of Delegates of the Division a quorum shall not be present within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, those present shall constitute a proper meeting for the purpose of the reception and adoption of Annual Reports and Accounts. The meeting shall adjourn to a place, date and time to be determined by State Council.
- 6.10.06 The Annual Assembly of Delegates shall be called in such manner as determined by the State Council.
- 6.10.07 The President of the Division or in his absence the Deputy State President shall preside.
If, thirty (30) minutes after the appointed starting time, the President or the Deputy State President is not present, members present may choose an Area Vice President as Chairman.
- 6.10.08 The business of the Division Annual Assembly of Delegates shall be to receive and consider the Auditor's Report and the audited Statements of Account for the preceding year, and the report of the Division officers on the past year's transactions, to appoint the Auditor, the election of officers and to consider any such other business as the State Council or any member upon due notice of motion brings before it. The lodgement with the State Secretary not less than sixty (60) days before the Annual Assembly of Delegates of a motion in writing by a member shall constitute due notice of motion; provided that any general business may be brought forward at the discretion of the Chairman.

6.10.09 Strangers and unfinancial members shall not be admitted to any meeting of the Division without the consent of the meeting.

6.11 State Council Meetings

6.11.01 At all meetings of the State Council the President of the Division, or in his absence the Deputy State President or an Area Vice President, shall preside. If at any meeting neither the President nor a Vice President is present at the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

6.11.02 The Chairman of a Meeting of the State Council shall not have a deliberative vote but in the event of an equality of votes, shall exercise a casting vote.

6.11.03 Any question or resolution submitted to any meeting of the State Council shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present in person.

6.11.04 A member must be a financial member present in person at State Council to be entitled to vote on any question or to be reckoned in a quorum.

6.11.05 The State Council shall meet not less than six (6) times in each year at such time and place as the Council shall determine.

6.11.06 A meeting of the State Council may be called at any time by the State Secretary on the instructions of the President or at the written request of any seven (7) Branches of such Council provided that not less than fourteen (14) days' notice in writing shall be given by the Secretary to the members of the State Council.

6.12 Special General Meetings

6.12.01 A Special General Meeting of the Division may be called at any time by the State Council on instructions of the President of the Division or at the written request of any seven (7) Branches of the Division, provided that not less than thirty (30) days' notice in writing shall be given by the Secretary to all Branches of the Division.

6.12.02 The State Council may whenever it thinks fit and shall upon requisition made in writing by ten percent (10%) of the financial members on the Register of the Division convene a Special General Meeting of the Division.

6.12.03 Any requisition for a Special General Meeting of the Division shall specify the object of the Meeting required and shall be signed by the members making the same and shall be forwarded to the State Secretary under cover of registered mail. It may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the requisitionists. The meeting shall be convened for the purpose specified and for no other purpose.

6.12.04 If, at a Special General Meeting of the Division, a quorum shall not be present within thirty (30) minutes after the appointed starting time, the meeting shall lapse.

6.12.05 Should the State Council fail to convene a Special General Meeting to be held within thirty (30) days after such requisition has been received by or on behalf of the Secretary the requisitionists may themselves convene a meeting to be held within thirty (30) days thereafter provided that fourteen (14) days' notice has been given by the requisitionists to the members of the Division.

- 6.12.06 Any resolution rejected at a Special General Meeting called by requisitionists of the State shall not again be submitted for consideration by any meeting for not less than twelve (12) months without the consent of the State Council.
- 6.12.07 A Special General Meeting of the Division may, by a resolution passed by at least two-thirds (2/3rds) of the members present thereat, remove from office any member of the State Council or Auditor before the expiration of his term of office having regard to the requirements of the preceding paragraphs and may by simple resolution appoint another person in his stead who shall hold office until the next Annual Assembly of Delegates.
- 6.12.08 a. The State Secretary shall give notice of all General Meetings of the Division; and
b. All notices of meetings of the Division required to be given by this Constitution or by any By-Law passed under it shall be served by sending such notices to the Branch Secretaries seven (7) days prior to the meeting. The late receipt or non-receipt of such notices shall not invalidate the proceedings of the meeting held in pursuance of such notice. Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served at the time the notice was posted and in providing such notice it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.
- 6.12.09 A motion or amendment proposed and seconded shall be put by the Chairman and decided by a majority of the Members present on a show of hands and the declaration of the Chairman as to the majority shall be final unless a poll be demanded by not less than five (5) financial Members present and entitled to vote at the meeting, provided however that no poll shall be taken as to the appointment of a Chairman or of Scrutineers or the adjournment of a meeting. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than that on which the poll is demanded.
- 6.12.10 A resolution of which special notice of motion has not been given and which is passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the financial members present at a meeting of the Division, shall be deemed to be a Special Resolution.
- 6.12.11 Where a specified number of days' notice is required to be given, the day of service shall not be counted in such number of days.
- 6.12.12 Unless otherwise provided by this Constitution, at every General Meeting every financial member present shall be entitled to one (1) vote and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

6.13 Voting

- 6.13.01 A poll shall be determined by a required majority by a show of hands.
- 6.13.02 At any meeting at which a ballot is required under this constitution or is demanded by members present, it shall be taken by straight voting and not by preferential voting. The Chairman shall declare the time and place for conducting the ballot.
- 6.13.03 At any meeting at which a ballot is conducted the members present shall appoint a returning officer and two (2) Scrutineers who shall open and examine the voting papers. The Returning Officer shall advise the Chairman the outcome of the voting result. The result of the ballot shall be determined to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was conducted.

6.13.04 Immediately the result of the ballot is declared, the voting papers shall be destroyed.
